Your questions answered

What is this form for?

This form gives you the opportunity to tell the Trustees of the Boots Pension Scheme who you want to receive the cash lump sum benefit in the event of your death.

Why you should fill out this form?

Although you may have a Will which specifies who should receive your Estate in the event of your death, the lump sum death benefit from the scheme is not included in your Estate. This form will give clear instructions to the Trustees, to avoid any confusion or doubt, about the right people to pay the lump sum death benefit to, in order to avoid delays in payment.

Why is the form not legally binding on the Trustees?

The cash lump sum death benefit is paid at the discretion of the Trustees, so that it is not subject to Inheritance Tax. The Nomination Form helps the Trustees to make this decision.

The Trustees will normally follow your instructions on the Nomination Form but they will also consider any changes in your circumstances since you completed the form.

How many people can I nominate?

You can nominate as many people as you like. Simply state what percentage of the death benefit you want paid to each person. All you have to do is make sure that the percentages add up to 100%.

Who will see this form?

The form will be treated as confidential and will be kept by the Pensions Department.
